

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh – Confucius Institute

TAG-Confucius Newsletter | Issue 112 - September 2025

TAG-Confucius Institute:

The Institute was established in September 2008 to introduce the Chinese language and culture, as well as achieving a greater mutual understanding between the Arab and Chinese cultures. This unique initiative is based on the cooperation agreement between TAG.Global and Confucius Institute in China. The Institute has been named after the great intellectual, mentor and philosopher, Confucius, whose ideas had influenced China and other regions around the world for over 2,000 years.

Dr. Yang Songfang is honored with “Medal for Long Service as a Confucius Institute Director”

On September 25, Dr. Yang Songfang, Chinese Director of TAG-Confucius Institute (TAG-CI), was awarded the “Medal for Long Service as a Confucius Institute Director” by Chinese International Education Foundation (CIEF).

Since assuming the role of Chinese Director in March 2015, Dr. Yang Songfang has dedicated herself for ten years to advancing the development of TAG-CI in areas including Chinese language teaching, cultural exchange, academic research and community service, achieving remarkable results.

This award not only serves as high recognition of her long-term commitment and exemplary contributions to the Confucius Institute, but also highlights the important role of TAG-CI in deepening China-Jordan friendship and promoting mutual learning between Chinese and Arab civilizations.

Established in 2021 by CIEF, the “Medal for Long Service as a Confucius Institute Director” aims to express gratitude and respect to Confucius Institute directors who have made lasting contributions to international Chinese education.

As a leading brand in international Chinese education, the Confucius Institute plays an irreplaceable role in promoting language and cultural exchange between China and other countries. This medal not only honors the career achievements of the director but also and promotion of the embodies the inheritance Confucius Institute spirit.

Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh and TAG-Confucius Institute Attend the Reception Celebrating the 76th Anniversary of the Founding of the People's Republic of China Hosted by the Chinese Embassy in Jordan

On September 25, the Chinese Embassy in Jordan hosted a reception to celebrate the 76th anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China. The event brought together over 600 guests, including Mr. Gong Anmin, Chargé d'affaires of the Chinese Embassy, HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, Founder and Chairman of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG. Global), Mr. Luay Abu-Ghazaleh, Vice-Chairman of TAG.Global and President of the Board of TAG-Confucius Institute (TAG-CI), Mr. Mamoun Abu Al-Sebaa, Jordanian Director of TAG-CI, Dr. Yang Songfang, Chinese Director of TAG-CI, Ms. Randa Al-Yabroudi, Deputy Director of TAG-CI, and the teachers of TAG-CI. Also in attendance were Jordan's Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Nancy Namrouqa, former Prime Minister Awn Al-Khasawneh, senior representatives from the Jordanian government, parliament and military, members of the diplomatic corps in Jordan, representatives of Chinese enterprises, overseas Chinese, as well as teachers and students, etc.

In his speech, Mr. Gong

Anmin reviewed China's remarkable achievements over the past 76 years since its founding, highlighting the resilience of its economy, continuous breakthroughs in scientific and technological innovation, and the steady advancement of high-quality

Belt and Road cooperation. He emphasized that China solemnly commemorates the 80th anniversary of the victory of the Chinese People's War of Resistance Against Japanese Aggression and the World Anti-Fascist War, and remains committed to its path of peaceful development, firmly upholds the international system with the United Nations at its core, and actively promotes the building of a community with a shared future for mankind. Mr. Gong underscored that China firmly opposes unilateralism and acts of bullying, reiterating its consistent support for the just cause of the Palestinian people. He also spoke highly of Jordan's significant role in promoting regional stability and expressed China's willingness to work together with Jordan to advance peace in the Middle East. He further noted that 2025 marks the 10th anniversary of the China-Jordan strategic partnership, with bilateral cooperation deepening across trade, education, science, technology, and culture. In closing, he extended festive greetings to the Chinese community in Jordan and expressed his heartfelt wishes for the prosperity of both countries and the enduring friendship between China and Jordan.

Guests extended their warm congratulations on the 76th anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China, engaging in cordial exchanges and friendly conversations. Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh and Mr. Luay Abu-Ghazaleh spoke highly of China's extraordinary achievements in economic and social development, as well as the fruitful outcomes of China-Jordan cooperation in various fields. Directors and faculty members of TAG-CI interacted warmly with embassy diplomats and guests, sincerely wishing both countries continued prosperity and everlasting friendship.

The reception unfolded in a warm and festive atmosphere. Guests enjoyed cultural performances including a puppet show, a traditional Chinese music ensemble performance of "Jasmine Flower", and a duet "I Am Willing to Give You Everything, Jordan" performed by Chinese and Jordanian artists. The celebration reached its emotional peak with the moving song of "My Motherland and I", leaving a lasting impression on all attendees.

Furthermore, the guests visited a photo exhibition commemorating the 80th anniversary of the victory of the Chinese People's War of Resistance Against Japanese Aggression and the World Anti-Fascist War. They also received books on China's governance philosophy and development experience, which offered them deeper insights into China's development path and governance concepts.

TAG-Confucius Institute Wins Third Prize in “CI Moments” Global Short Video Contest

On September 25, Chinese International Education Foundation (CIEF) announced the results of the 5th “CI Moments” Global Short Video Contest. Among 616 submissions from 143 Confucius Institutes in 84 countries, My Three Years in Jordan, produced by TAG-Confucius Institute (TAG-CI), stood out and won the Third Prize.

The video traces the three-year journey of Ms. Sheng Guannan during her work and life at TAG-CI. It highlights her dedicated classroom teaching, active promotion of Chinese language and culture in local schools and enterprises, organization of diverse cultural events, and participation in major exchange programs between China and Jordan.

From personal growth to perseverance and dedication behind each achievement, the video portrays not only the responsibility and passion of a Chinese language teacher, but also tells a vivid story of cultural dialogue between China and the Arab world.

Over these three years, Ms. Sheng has gained not only professional experience and accomplishments, but also profound intercultural understanding and heartfelt friendships.

For her, it was a time of experiencing the power of language and the warmth of cultural exchange. This journey at TAG-CI will remain a lasting inspiration in her heart.

Heartfelt and touching, the video reflects both the dedication of a young Chinese teacher abroad and the deep bonds of friendship and exchange between China and Jordan.

TAG-Confucius Institute Invited to Attend National Day and Mid-Autumn Festival Reception Hosted by the Chinese Embassy in Jordan

On September 29, the Chinese Embassy in Jordan hosted a National Day and Mid-Autumn Festival reception. More than 300 attendees gathered together joyfully for the celebration, including Mr. Gong Anmin, Chargé d'affaires of the Chinese Embassy in Jordan, embassy diplomats, overseas Chinese in Jordan, teachers, students, compatriots from Hong Kong and Taiwan, and staff from Chinese enterprises in Jordan. Dr. Yang Songfang, Chinese Director of TAG-Confucius Institute (TAG-CI), attended the event with the teachers of TAG-CI upon invitation and presented a wonderful stage performance.

In his speech, Mr. Gong warmly welcomed everyone “home.” He reviewed the remarkable achievements China has made over the 76 years since the founding of the People’s Republic of China, noting that 2025 marks the 80th anniversary of the victory of the Chinese People’s War of Resistance Against Japanese Aggression and the World Anti-Fascist War.

He emphasized that all Chinese people should remember history, carry forward the great spirit of resistance, and unite in striving for the realization of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. He expressed gratitude to the overseas Chinese community in Jordan for their contributions to the exchanges and cooperation between China and Jordan in various fields.

He encouraged everyone to continue leveraging their unique advantages as bridges between the two cultures, serving as vital links in the friendly cooperation between China and Jordan. He also hoped that everyone should uphold both their own image and China’s image through concrete actions, and extended his warm festive wishes to the guests present.

Director Yang Songfang and the teachers of TAG-CI passionately presented a poem recital with music entitled “Moonlight over the Silk Road, Hearts Tied to China” as the opening performance. With heartfelt verses and touching melodies, the recital conveyed deep affection for the motherland and blessings for Chinese people worldwide, earning warm applause and strong resonance from the audience.

That evening, the guests also enjoyed instrumental music performance, dance, songs, etc., while also enthusiastically participating in riddle-guessing games, which filled the venue with a joyful festive atmosphere.

The reception concluded with a dinner, where participants shared friendship and expressed best wishes for the prosperity and strength of the great motherland, national peace and security, and family reunions.
